PERRIN COMPANY HAS GREAT LAND HOLDING

The state land commission and its chairman W. A. Mower have been taxed with all sorts of crimes against leases of state lands, the main complaint coming from Dr. E. B. Perrin, who claims that he was badly and even unlawfully treated by the land board. Perrin, it will be safe to say, is one of the largest land holders of the state and is constantly seeking other lands to conquer. He has the Santa Maria grant, in western Yavapai county, which is 12 miles square. He also owns large acreages in southern Arizona and in Coconino county. Not only does he own in fee simple and by leasehold nearly 400,000 acres of land, but he has suit against the Santa Fe for the delivery to him of about 70,000 acres more. He had lands under lease from the state contiguous to his Santa Maria grant, and these lands were taken from him and, as we understand it, given to cowmen who needed the acreage. This action Dr. Perrin bitterly resented and is making every effort to make the land board come through with the lands. Investigation has shown that these lands are not needed by Dr. Perrin nor should he or others owning enormous tracts of grazing lands be allowed to grab the state lands to an extent that it will put out of commission the smaller stockmen. If these lands or any other under the control of Dr. Perrin been used for grazing and developed as they should be the people might look upon these amazing holdings with equanimity, but they are all left in their wild state without a dollar being spent on them from year to year, with the expectation, it is supposed of their gaining largely in value by the efforts of surrounding land owners.

ANNOUNCE NEW RULING IN INCOME TAX LAWS

A new ruling made by the treasury department relative to the transfer of surplus stock by a corporation to its capital stock account designates that no income tax may be collected upon the new stock which is issued to stockholders, according to a telegram received by Chief Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue W. E. White.

This latest ruling reverses a former decision of the same department that tax could be levied upon such distributions of stock. No change is made, however, in the former ruling that when a cash dividend is declared by the corporation, which at the same time increases its capital stock with the understanding that it shall be butions of stock. No change is made, tax may be collected.

THE ROAD OF A THOUSAND WASHES OR MORE

The reader who has negotiated the road between Yucca and Topock will read with entertainment the following article taken from the log book of the Goodyear transcontinental truck tour, which has just been issued. We know the poor drivers had a hard time of it, especially as the touring car makes the trip from Needles to Kingman, over this same piece of road in about three hours, a distance of 72 miles. And we know that it is the "awfullest desert" in that section of the country, although we have seen the roadside lined with Easter lilies and the whole country covered with the lily of the desert and other wild flowers in combination. But the truck drivers must report something that will show their superiority as drivers over unsurmountable obstacles and impregnable desert sands. Go on and read it; it will give you that creepy feeling when you think of the broken cars, the really vexed drivers, the road-strewn decrepit tire casings, the terrific chuckawallas awaiting their victims and the courageous truck driver coming through without a scratch. Now go on and read:

"On the Santa Fe trail, between the town of Topock, situated on the east bank of the Colorado river, in Arizona, and Yucca, thirty miles distant, is the 'road of a thousand washes'. This portion of the trail passes through the most desolate stretch of sandy desert imaginable, and after a trip over it, the jaded motorist agrees to the appropriateness of the nickname. It is replete with 'arroyos' or 'dry washes', caused by the terrific downpour of rain which comes but a few times during one season of the year.

The almost endless succession of crossing of these washes is bound to test any car, and all along this section broken car parts and decrepit tire casings are strewn.

This route was travelled by the Goodyear transcontinental truck which but recently established a new truck record from Los Angeles to New York, making the cross-country run in thirteen days, thirteen hours, fifteen minutes. The big pneumatic tire equipment of the truck enabled it to cover these forbidding thirty miles at night, without mishap or delay. When the truck arrived at Kingman, Arizona, automobile and truck men declared the performance would have been unbelievable had not the actual evidence confronted them."

Jon W. Norton, candidate for United States Senator, is not a perennial office seeker, he is a business man.

En Famille

"Mr. is Mr. Jones an awfully old man?"
"No, dear, I don't believe so. What makes you ask?"
"Well, I thought he must be, because I heard Pa say last night that Mr. Jones raised his ante."

Harvesting the Crop

When the German Army broke into Belgium and swept through the country one detachment was billeted in a farm house. A private, wandering through the fields, came upon a young girl sowing seeds.

"Yah!" he sneered. "You shall sow but we shall reap."
"I shouldn't be at all surprised," she replied sweetly. "You see, I'm sowing hemp."

Vote for John W. Norton for the United States Senate. He is the one man who knows the needs of the people.

RALPH H. CAMERON

Republican
Candidate for
United States
Senator

If nominated and elected I promise to become the active business agent of the people of the State of Arizona at the national capitol. I will work incessantly for legislation that will intensify the prosperity of our people and will eventually make of Arizona the brightest star in the galaxy of states. As to my ability to make good on this pledge I refer to my record in 1918, when I assured you that I would secure statehood for Arizona, and during the first term in congress I succeeded in placing the 48th star on the matchless canopy of blue. On this pledge can I have your support?
